

The Heart of the Disciple-maker

Responding to God

Reflecting on your personal knowledge of scripture:

1. In your own words, describe the heart of the reproducing disciple as he relates to God.
2. Explain why you believe a reproducing disciple must have a heart to obey God.
3. Find and comment on passages that speak to the topic of “heart for God.”
4. From your knowledge of scripture, identify some men who clearly had a heart for God.
5. If you can obtain a copy, read Hudson Taylor’s Spiritual Secret, and write a brief summary of how this book has challenged you.

Responding to People

Reflecting on your personal knowledge of scripture:

1. Why do you believe a reproducing disciple must have a heart for people?
2. As you reflect on your favorite characters in the scriptures, which of them would you say had a heart for people? What is the basis for your conclusion?
3. In your own words, explain what it means to have a “heart for people.”

Analyzing Your Heart

Reflecting on your personal knowledge of scripture:

1. Develop a conviction statement regarding the heart of the reproducing disciple—toward God, and toward people.
2. Summarize what you have learned as a result of this study.
3. Determine how you will put these truths into practice.
